As a dynamic and motivated professional, I have demonstrated a unique blend of entrepreneurial and technical skills throughout my career. Recently, I set a new goal for myself: to become a full stack software developer. This decision was driven by my love for learning and my fascination with the endless possibilities technology offers. I am currently embarking on this journey, eager to build upon my existing skill set and explore new frontiers in software development.

SKILL SUMMARY

Frontend: HTML5, CSS, jQuery, JavaScript, Bootstrap, REACT, AJAX, SASS, Personal Web Application
